US Trophy West championship points and drops explained

This series includes four (4) weekends / eight (8) total Race Days. Each Race Day is comprised of qualifying, two heat races and one final. Each heat race and final counts toward the overall championship points (points table in Sporting Regulations). Qualifying is only counted as tie-breaker if needed.

There are two Race Day drops (total day point totals) in the series. Drivers cannot use two Race Day drops from the same weekend. The series champions will be awarded to the driver who receives the most points in their best 6/8 Race Days per the points table in the Sporting Regulations.

US Trophy East championship points explained

This series includes two (2) weekends / four (4) total Race Days. Each Race Day is comprised of qualifying, two heat races and one final. Each heat race and final counts toward the overall championship points (points table in Sporting Regulations). Qualifying is only counted as tie-breaker if needed. There are NO DROPS in the Us Trophy East series.
